Heaven" by Carrie Underwood, "Don't Phunk With My Heart" by The Black Eyed Peas, and "We Belong Together" by Mariah Carey, but this music fan suggests "Sounds of San Francisco," a killer club mix to The Mommas & The Poppas classic by Global DJs, as well as "Walkin' in Memphis," of which the best version is Marc Cohn's, and "Feelin' Good," by Gen-Y crooner Michael Bubl.

Apple Stores. Promenade at Sagemore, Marlton. 500 Route 73 south, Marlton. (856) 810-3712. King of Prussia Mall, 160 N. Gulph Road, King of Prussia. (610) 265-2321.

OUTDOOR FIRE PIT: Add a little fire to your al fresco feast. Not only does a painted steel fire pit look good, it also keeps your picnic guests toasty on cool nights. Perfect for S'mores, snuggling with someone special, and telling scary campfire tales to your kids about "The Boy Who Didn't Clean Up His Room."

Throw on the included cooking grate, and presto! you've got a grill that's portable and practical. Cost: $259.

BYO BAG: You've seen them around town, grape-lovers toting their wares in neon neoprene sacks. They're at Django on South Street, at Melange in Cherry Hill, at L'angolo in South Philly. And there's a good reason these thermal BYO Bags are so popular. "The best wines for picnics are cold and refreshing," says Ronnie Sanders of Vine Street Imports, a Philly-based importer and distributor of rare, artisan wines. Crisp, acidic grapes like semi-sweet German Rieslings and California roses are "best served with a slight chill, optimally 50 degrees."

Invest $16.99 and keep your whites securely cool even after picnic season.

Kitchen Kapers. The Cherry Hill Mall, 2000 Route 38, Cherry Hill. (856) 662-1919 or www.kitchenkapers.com. Also, Vine Street Imports, 5301 Tacony St., Philadelphia. (215) 533-9463 or www.vsimports.com.

TRAVELING MARTINI SET: So wine's not your thing. No problem. If you prefer Ketel One to Cabernet, the Traveling Martini Set is your new best friend. The compact leather-bound briefcase is loaded with glasses, shaker, strainer and such a sexy supper-club '50s aesthetic your picnic guests will spontaneously break out in a rendition of "The Summer Winds." Cost: $110, booze not included.

Tinderbox/Vino 100. The Quarter at Tropicana. 2801 Pacific Ave., Atlantic City. (609) 441-9500 or vino100.com.

EAGLES BEACH BLANKET: While the future of a certain wide receiver who will remain nameless is uncertain, this is for sure: If there's one thing people hate more than an injury-prone crybaby, it's grass stains on their white pants right before Labor Day.
